

The Disappeared

Charlie Armstrong

Disappeared on 15th August 1981.

Charlie was medium in height and roughly 5 ft 4". He was 54 years old when he disappeared and he had receding brown hair. Charlie was a very pleasant, outgoing man. He was a very talkative person who loved a bit of craic with other people and he could be very funny. His hobbies were mainly around animals. He loved horse racing and backing horses, he also loved dogs and caged birds. He was a football fan and enjoyed gardening, decorating and fishing.

Charlie's friends would describe him as being very obliging, always willing to help neighbours. Nothing was too much for him to do for other people.

Charlie was a very good husband and father. He was a very caring person.

His body has never been recovered.
